Stonewater, in partnership with Persimmon Homes, is proud to present a collection of two and four bedroom homes for shared ownership in the new community of Inglewood, off Brixham Road, Paignton. Located to the south of Paignton town centre and bordering beautiful open countryside, 38 shared ownership properties form part of a development which will ultimately benefit from its own amenities including landscaped green areas and a new school.

Each of the properties on offer will be fitted with the very latest in green technology including photovoltaic panels, air-source heat pumps and electric vehicle charging points. Flooring will be provided throughout each property whilst outside there is allocated, off-street parking for two vehicles.

The four bedroom properties' layout features a large kitchen/dining room on the ground floor at the back of the house, with double doors leading onto the rear garden. A separate living room, hall and a cloakroom with WC and handbasin complete the downstairs space. Upstairs there are four bedrooms and a contemporary style family bathroom.

Whilst more compact, the two bedroom homes offer similarly well planned interior space. A spacious downstairs living/dining room has double doors opening onto the rear garden. A separate kitchen, hall and downstairs cloakroom complete the ground floor layout. Upstairs are two good-sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Inglewood will be a popular destination for families being close to eight primary schools and four secondary schools or colleges. These include the White Rocks and Roseland primary schools and, for older pupils, the popular Paignton Academy. Other essential amenities less than two miles from the site include two GP practices and a dentists' surgery. Local supermarkets include a Sainsbury's, Lidl and an ALDI, all within walking distance.

Paignton town centre is just to the north of Inglewood, where a variety of restaurants, cafes, pubs and high street and independent shops can be found. Stand-out attractions include Paignton's pier, home to the famous Pier Café, and, just outside the town, Paignton Zoo, which has more than 2,000 animals in an 80-acre site. Just over a mile away, and within easy walking distance, is Broadsands Beach, a long, sandy family-friendly beach ideal for a day's sunbathing, swimming or both.

Inglewood is conveniently placed for access to not only Paignton but also the other towns on the English Riviera. Torquay to the north is just under eight miles away; Brixham to the south approximately four miles, all speedily accessible via the A379.

The nearest train station to Inglewood is Paignton in the town centre, which is on the Cross Country network. From here Exeter St David's is a direct train journey away of just 43 minutes, with Bristol being two hours and 9 minutes away. For travel further afield, Exeter Airport is just over 28 miles away, offering both domestic and European holiday destinations.
