BARTON ROAD

Barlestone, Leicestershire CV13 0EU

Stonewater, working with MyPad Ltd, presents a collection of two bedroom semi-detached houses for Rent to Buy at Barton Road, Barlestone.

These two bedroom homes offer a spacious kitchen/dining room at the back leading on to a private rear garden, a separate living room at the front and a useful cloakroom with WC and hand basin on the ground floor. Upstairs are two good-sized double bedrooms and a contemporary style family bathroom. All of the homes benefit from their own off-street parking.

Located 30 minutes outside of Leicester city centre, Barlestone is an attractive medium sized village with around 2,000 residents. The village has three active churches and a village primary school, Barlestone Church of England Primary School, rated 'Good' by Ofsted.

Amenities in the village included a Co-op incorporating a post office, a fish and chip shop, a Chinese takeaway, an Indian restaurant and two hairdressers. There are also two pubs: The Red Lion and The Three Tuns, both of which serve food. A doctor's surgery is located in the village at Westfields whilst a dental surgery is within walking distance from the development.

Barlestone St.Giles football clubhouse is located on Saints Walk which frequently offers a programme of entertainment in the evenings. For those seeking gentler sporting pursuits there is a bowls club situated on playing fields off Bosworth Road.

Barlestone enjoys a peaceful rural setting surrounded by fields and is ideal for anyone interested in picturesque country walks. The nearby market town of Market Bosworth, known for its beautiful Georgian architecture, is considered by many to be one of Leicestershire's most desirable places to live.

The village is also a great place for exploring nearby attractions such as Bosworth Battlefield Heritage Centre and Twycross zoo. For journeys further afield, the nearest train station is at Leicester, 12 miles away, and the nearest airport is East Midlands, just over 17 miles away.
